GREAT RENDEZVOUS!!

The 2025 Rendezvous was a great Rally!! Great fun, fellowship and friends! We had a great trip to Fort Smith, Arkansas. The beautiful fields of rice, cotton and soy was absolutely breath taking!!

The Rally was fantastic We had 700 plus people in attendance. The events that were planned were well attended. The entertainment on Thursday night was great. As usual, Mr. Doug Thompson had a great show that everyone enjoyed! Next year, Rendezvous will be in Sharonville, Ohio, which will be closer for Tennesseans.

The East Tennessee Ride will be November 1, 2025, to Fox and Hound Restaurant in Newport, Tennessee. We hope to see a great turnout!!

The 2026 Registration for our Rally has been placed on the Tennessee and National Website. If you have any questions regarding the 2026 Tennessee Rally please give us a call.

We hope everyone will have a safe and great riding this fall!!

Just a gentle reminder to our chapters. Please be respectful to the locations that provides your chapter with a meeting room each month. It is very hard to find places that will reserve a full room for us now that most of our chapters no longer have 30 to 40 members at the meetings. The servers work just as hard for 6 as they do for 60. They are usually pulled from the main part of the restaurant and are focused only on our group. Your chapter meeting is only one day a month, please order a meal to support for the restaurants that still is working with us.

Winter is coming

Get all the riding you can in the next few weeks. Before you know it, winter will be here, and you will be looking for something to do. Well, winter is the perfect time to practice for the talent show or the Karaoke contest. You sign up for the Karaoke after arriving at Spring Fling, but if you are doing the talent show we need you to sign up in advance if possible. If we don't get any signups, we may not have the talent show. You will find the sign-up sheet in this newsletter. Please fill it out and send it in as soon as possible. We look forward to seeing you at Spring Fling.

PASSENGER / CO-RIDER

Whether you call them a passenger or co-rider, they are a very important person (VIP) and should always be treated with respect.

Following are some tips for riding with this VIP.

- Proper Gear - Just because there is someone on the back of the bike does not mean they do not need protection in the form of a quality jacket, boots, helmet and gloves.
- Expectation – Talk about everything, including the parts of the motorcycle, the need for leaning and looking over your inside shoulder in turns and how best to communicate with each other on the road (especially if no headset is used).
- Take It Easy – As the rider/operator you're just not responsible for your own safety, but that of you co-rider/passenger, as well. Watch your speed and aggressiveness, and keep in mind that your bike will handle differently with your co-rider. Be smooth, focus on being predictable and remember that passengers might make unexpected movements, which could suddenly make things very scary.
- Planning – Hey, riding together means planning together. Just because you are up front in control does not make this a monarchy. The co-rider is to have an active role in the plans of the trip, including stops along the way.

- Listen – When your co-rider talks “listen to them”. They may observe something that you do not or did not see. Two sets of eyes are better than one set. Stop when the co-rider wants/needs to. Also, keeping them within their comfort level is good practice.

Remember, you both are doing this to have fun. So, since there are different strokes for different people, be flexible. The ride and time together will be more enjoyable.

Enjoy the riding adventures of ones to come and remember the good times of the past.
